Film Program | First Half

Thank You Bees (13 min)

Jason is a passionate beekeeper from Kenya who travels to Nepal to meet the Gurung honey hunters and witness their ancient tradition of harvesting wild honey from 90-meter cliffs.

Call to Action!
Support bees and all pollinators by planting native flowers.

Flora, Fauna, Funga (17 min)

Chilean mycologist Giuliana Furci gets together with two other scientists in a remote part of southern Patagonia to search for new mushrooms and highlight how fungi underpin every ecosystem on Earth.

Call to Action!
Sign the statement to protect fungi equally with animals and plants. florafaunafunga.org

The Rewilders (38 min)

Fierce and passionate individuals from BC, Montana, Chile and South Africa are taking audacious measures to save a planet in crisis. The impact of their efforts is galvanizing a global movement, one species and one landscape at a time.

Call to Action!
Speak out for preserving our wild places.

Wildsight.ca/Invermere

Wildsight Invermere is a leading environmental voice of the Columbia Valley and has been at the forefront of community environmental engagement since 1989. We are a volunteer-led group of diverse people with a common passion for celebrating and conserving the critical natural systems we all rely on. Thank you for supporting local environmental programs through our annual Wild & Scenic Film Festival.

Film Program | Second Half

Door Prize draws!

Risky Routes (6 min)

When you're a common toad, navigating a man-made world turns ordinary features into real obstacles, revealing how biodiversity loss can occur right at our doorstep.

Call to Action!
Learn more about our local endangered Northern Leopard Frog.

Cougar Crossing (14 min)

Los Angeles is well known for its celebrities, so when the fearless cougar P-22 gained fame for making its home in the city, he inspired an effort to build the world's largest wildlife crossing and helped spark a national campaign to support crossings and corridors everywhere.

Call to Action!
Slow your roll on the Radium hill and help our Rocky Mountain Sheep thrive.

Coral in Focus (16 min)

Coral reefs face unprecedented danger due to mass bleaching and increasing water temperatures. In Fiji, by building future leaders and empowering youth, communities can thrive with strong stewards of our natural world.

Call to Action!
Support local youth taking action to protect our valley's precious ecosystems.

Saving Silence (15 min)

Action photographer Emily Tidwell travels to her hometown in Minnesota where she explores the connection between wild places and our mental health. Along the way, she explores the threat of microplastics in our fresh waters.

Call to Action!
Spend more time in your favourite wild places to support your mental health. Encourage others to do so, too.
